

WRITERS READ AT CONCORDIA
in collaboration with
THE SCHOOL OF CANADIAN IRISH STUDIES

welcomes Irish writer

RODDY DOYLE

2011
WRITERS READ

Friday, October 7, 7:30 p.m.
BMO Amphitheatre, MB 1.210
1450 rue Guy

Roddy Doyle is one of Ireland's most successful and accomplished contemporary writers. He has written plays, stories, children's literature and novels, most notably The Commitments, The Van, A Star Called Henry, and The Woman Who Walked into Doors. Paddy Clarke Ha Ha Ha won the prestigious Man Booker Prize in 2003. Several of his novels have been made into highly successful films.

For more information:

514-848-2424 ext. 8711

cdnirish.concordia.ca

english.concordia.ca/writersread

cdnirish@alcor.concordia.ca

